CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd. cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Case toria is the Children's Panacea-the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Cameria is an excellent medicine for chilgren. Middlers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Da. G. C. Ospoon Lowell, Mass.

"Casteria is the local remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not for distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instend of the various: ack nostrums which are destroying their leved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, southing syrup and other burtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to promuture graves.

Comway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Our physicians in the children's depart ment have spoken highly of their experi ence in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with

Advice for Lovers. Young woman, beware of the mar who seeks to bind you to a long en gagement. No matter what his pre ext may be, his motive is almost always a selfish one

He is either too lazy to work for a family, and too fond of his bachelor indulgences to be willing to renounce them for the purer and calmer joys of married life, or is a base scoundrel, seeking only to win your affections and your confidence by traud and a promise which he neve intends to make good, Somebody will ask us what we consider a long engagement. We reply, a year is quite long enough for all purposes, and if it runs be-yond that time it is too long. A girl "engaged" is subject to all the disadvantages. She must stay at home, except when her intended sees fit to take her out, and she must repel all courtesies from other gendemen, because Tom will be jealous No man who is young and well and has a good moral character is too poor to marry a girl who is equal in these respects, providing he loves her truly and is beloved by her in return. For, if they do truly love each other they will be willing to bear and forbear, to work for each other, to puit together, to paddle hopefully their own domestic cause, and Fate, however relentless she may seem to he, seldom fails to yield success to hose who toil for it with fearless hearts and willing hands, You must be willing to bear reverses. You must expect disapointments You must be ready to meet ill luck and to endure poverty if need be. Don't expect things to make themselves unless you help them. Whatever you have must be worked for, and if it is worth having it is richly worth working por. So now, young man, this is our advice to you. If you love a young cirl tell her so manfully, with no cowardly beating about the bush. If she says she does not reciprocate your love it won't kill you. Not at all. There are others just as good marry you, don't ask her to wait till you have made a fortune, but just invite her to come with you and help you to make one.

Long engagements are galling. like any other chain There may be circumstances which justify them. but they are exceptional circumstances, and we are only dealing with things as they generally exist. The woman almost always is the chief sufferer. Her wrong is im measurably greater. She struggles slong the weary years of waiting in a false position, and by and by her bloom fades and her temper sours, and then Tom sees somebody younger and fresher and more attractive and he is weary of Mary; and the engagement is broken, and he mar-ries his new love; and Mary either

Harper's Weekly is acknowledged as standing first among illustrated weekly periodicals in Ame ica. It occupies a place between that of the burried dully paper and that of the less timely monthly imagazine. It includes both literature and news, and presents with equal force and felicity the real events of current history and the limaginative themes of fetion. On account of its very complete series of illustrations of the World's Fair, it will be not only the best guide to the great Exposition, but also its best souvenir Every public event of general interest will be fully illustrated in its pages. Its contributions being from the best writers and artists in this country, it will contain to exceed in literature, news, and illustrations, all other publications of its class.

SALINA, Kansas, Oct. 18th, 1852.

"I was afflicted for two years with a weakness of the abdominal organs, which disabled me for work much of the time, and made it impossible at all times for me to do much lifting. An ordinary day's work left me at night so weak that I could hardly get around. There seemed to be a breaking loose or giving way of some part of the bowels, with soreness and a general dropping down, producing great pain. This resulted in general weakness and failing health.

I consulted several physicians without finding any who seemed to understand my case. None was able to give me relief. I took tonics and other medicines without benefit. out benefit.

I have worn the Natural Body Brace one month. It has proven to be just the thing for me—exactly what I needed. It makes me comfortable. I have no pain, It enables me to work without difficulty. My general health is already much improved. "James L. Dodgs.
